

The Chuck Rogers 4-member team of John Poff, Jim Baron, Dave Wilson and Brad Longberry claimed the championship of the 2022 Sam Bello Memorial Golf outing, benefitting the Hancock Sports Hall of Fame at Hillcrest Golf Club on Friday, June 24.

But long before the title was decided two individuals claimed accolades as well. First, John Poff fired a hole-in-one on the 193-yard, par-3 No. 17 hole using an 8-iron. A short time later Kyle Krauss did the same, using an 8-iron to ace the 165-yard, par-3 No.3 hole.

Krauss' shot equaled what his father, Dave, had done a year earlier on the No.3 hole.

There have now been three (3) aces during the last two Hall of Fame outings.

The Rogers crew shot a 17-under par 54 and because of Poff's ace the five-some also claimed the skins game.

Two teams recorded 55s and the unit of John Vielhaber, John Zitkovic, Larry Vielhaber and Daniel Vielhaber earned second on a scorecard playoff over Dave Krauss, Marty Panning, Randy McDonald and Mark Feehan.

The championship team received complimentary golf passes from the Findlay Country Club with gift certificates from Clouse House Golf going to the runner-up team. The third place squad earned $25 gift certificates from Tony's Restaurant.

In all, 16 teams participated in the event.

The Hall of Fame extends a special thanks to the University of Findlay for its generous support as the event's title sponsor.

This year's event raised $5,200 and the funds will be used to continue the tradition established in 1983 of honoring the county's administrators, coaches, players and teams.

Please plan to join us in 2023 when the event will be held June 30th at Hillcrest Golf Club.
